MOTION TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

Defendant Emad Ezzat respectfully moves to modify his conditions of release to permit him to travel within the Western and Northern Districts of New York.

As grounds for this motion, defendant states that he is charged with misuse of a Social Security number. He is on release following a hearing held on June 7, 2004 before Judge Charles B. Swartwood. As part of the release conditions, his travel was restricted to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Since his release, defendant has been in compliance with his conditions of release.

Defendant seeks permission to extend his travel to the Western and Northern Districts of New York. He has a modest business interest in some distressed properties in northwestern New York and seeks to be able to travel to attend to them.

The government, by Assistant United States Attorney Gregory Moffatt, has no objection to this request.
